Customer Reviews

I'd recommend this volume (and the other 3 as well) to anyone who has loved and lost that love. If Hamlet, as Harold Bloom believes, invented the human being, Sondheim invented the beginning and end of relationship.wb

This is a fine collection of the songs of Broadway's most celebrated composer-lyricist, Stephen Sondheim. His music has been consistently superior to any and all who have ever written a Broadway musical, particularly those of his contemporaries. His works have been performed all over the world for decades now, a clear indication of the admiration and respect due to a composer of the highest caliber and genius of Stephen Sondheim.

This is a terrific volume, especially if you are looking for more of the obscure songs.
