good

This book gave a historical reason that why Iran moved toward Constitutional Revolution in Iran. First, when Japan defeated Russia political dynamic was altered globally. In this Revolution Azeri people and political figures like Satar Khan wanted Iran to adopt Constitution. Also, Iranian ladies took part in this Revolution. Once, this Revolution was moving forward Iran's social, economic, and political changes were taken place.

I found this book to be highly informative. I did disagree with some of its conclusions, but the book would be an excellent intro to Iran's constitutional movement for a casual reader and is an excellent resource for a more serious reader.
